Tax Planning Strategies for Family Groups

Broadcast: Wednesday, July 17, 2019

Webinar: July 17, July 25

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act made many changes to the Internal Revenue Code that impact families in a variety of ways. Because the new law enacted so many tax benefits for families, tax practitioners must understand and be able to apply these changes to effectively advise their clients. This program summarizes the major changes impacting families and minors. The panelists will discuss planning strategies families can implement to address these changes in the most effective way.

Key Topics

- Increase in the child tax credit and additional child tax credit
- Credit for other dependents
- The increased standard deduction and loss of the personal and dependency exemptions
- Changes to the kiddie tax
- Section 529 plan changes
- New strategies for disability and special needs planning with 529A ABLE accounts
- Forgiveness of student loans
- Repeal of the alimony deduction
- Sale of life insurance and viatical settlements

Panelists

Claudia Hill, EA
Jeffrey Jacobs, Esq.
Lance Weiss, CPA, CVA
Michael J. Tucker, CPA, LL.M. (moderator)
Panelists are subject to change.

Guide to the New Accounting Methods for Small and Medium-sized Businesses

Wednesday, Aug. 14, 2019 (Webinar dates: Aug. 14, Aug. 22)

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act expanded the number of small business taxpayers eligible to use the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting and exempted these small businesses from certain accounting rules for inventories, cost capitalization and long-term contracts. This program is an in-depth discussion of these issues and many others related to accounting methods after tax reform.

Key Topics

- New interest limitation rules under Section 163(j)
- Which taxpayers can elect out of the interest limitation rules and how to do so
- Preparing Form 3115 to make accounting method changes for taxpayers switching to the cash method or desiring a different method for inventories or long-term contracts
- When and how to make the Section 481(a) adjustment for the relevant accounting method changes
- Determining the taxpayer's gross receipts for the $25 million gross receipts test

Social Security and Medicare in 2019: What You Need to Know to Help Your Clients

Wednesday, Sept. 25, 2019 (Webinar dates: Sept. 25, Oct. 1)

As clients age, it is common for tax practitioners to field questions regarding Social Security and Medicare. This program provides attendees with a comprehensive understanding of both Social Security and Medicare, and information needed to maximize the benefits of these two programs. The panel includes two of the foremost practitioners and commentators in the United States, Mary Beth Franklin and David Cowan.

Key Topics

- When an individual can access Social Security
- Maximizing Social Security benefits for individuals and married couples
- Social Security issues relating to spouses, widows/widowers and divorced spouses
- Medicare eligibility rules
- Costs for health care and drugs covered in part by Medicare
- How Medicare works with any other individual health care coverage

Tax Practitioner's Guide to Buying or Selling a Business

Wednesday, Oct. 23, 2019 (Webinar dates: Oct. 23, Oct. 29)

Buying or selling a business is a complex transaction with many tax variables, such as whether the transaction is an asset sale, a stock sale or an acquisitive reorganization, the types of entities involved as buyer and seller, and whether there are hidden liabilities and/or assets the buyer does not want. This program is an examination of the tax consequences to the buyer and seller of a business, presented by panelists with decades of experience.

Key Topics

- Differences between an asset sale and a stock sale
- Tax consequences associated with the sale of a partnership/MMLLC interest
- Section 754, Section 338 and Section 338(h)(10) elections
- Acquisitive and divisive reorganizations that facilitate the sale of a business
- Ordinary or capital gain or loss for business property
- Consulting agreements and employment agreements between buyers and sellers

Update on Pass-through Entities after Tax Reform: S Corporations, Partnerships and Limited Liability Companies

Wednesday, Nov. 6, 2019 (Webinar dates: Nov. 6, Nov. 14)

Following the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, tax practitioners will likely want to understand how pass-through entities interact with important developments such as the limitation on the interest deduction, the new $250,000/$500,000 loss limitation, and the Section 199A deduction. This program will discuss these tax reform developments and major issues relating to pass-through entities, such as basis, distributions and liquidations.

Key Topics

- Pass-through entities and the Section 199A deduction
- The four loss limitations that apply to owners of pass-through entities
- How pass-through entities are impacted by the Section 163(j) interest limitation
- When an S corporation should convert to a C corporation
- Section 754 elections in a Tax Cuts and Jobs Act environment
- Taxation of pass-through entity distributions to shareholders, partners and members
